

Legal Risks and Liability Concerns in Wellness & Fitness Programs

written by David Herbert | June 26, 2017

On Thursday, June 22, 2017 we collaborated with one of our trusted attorneys, David Herbert, to host a webinar for one of our respected endorsers, The World Instructor Training Schools (W.I.T.S). It had great advice and risk management scenarios that often occur in the wellness and fitness space specific to personal trainers, fitness instructors, dietitians and more! Our intent is to educate wellness & fitness professionals on risks and liabilities in their professional space so that they can focus on what they do best.

As a malpractice insurance provider, CPH & Associates is committed to providing fitness professionals with resources to best aid their career. To recap on our webinar, click the play button for the audio and feel free to follow along with the PDF / visual presentation below!
