

Federal Regulations and Guidelines for Client Access to Records

written by Guest Author | July 22, 2016

The US Department Of Health and Human Services has published guidelines for individuals' right under HIPAA to access their health information (45 CFR §164.24). The thinking behind the Department's regulations and guidelines is to provide individuals with easy access to their health information to empower them to be more in control of decisions regarding their health and well-being.
